The following questions pertain to how a new regulation would affect your business. If it is determined that the draft regulation is likely to impose a direct and significant economic burden upon a small business; or directly restrict the formation, operation or expansion of a small business; then the agency will take any or all of the following actions:

1. Insofar as practicable, consult with owners and officers of affected small businesses,
2. Consider methods to reduce the impact of the proposed regulation, and
3. Prepare a small business impact statement and make copies of the statement available to the public at the workshop conducted and the public hearing held pursuant to NRS 233B.061.

The draft regulation is as follows will be considered by the Sagebrush Ecosystem Council:

- Land uses or activities that are subject to state agency review, approval, or authorization to allow for anthropogenic disturbances as defined in the most current version of documents within the Conservation Credit System, as administered by the Sagebrush Ecosystem Program, must avoid, minimize, and mitigate, as necessary.
- Any mitigation processes must use:
  1. The Conservation Credit System, or
  2. An approved existing Mitigation Program, or
  3. Some combination therein
- Any mitigation on private lands is deemed voluntary and not subject to these regulations.
- Any mitigation for notice-level exploration is deemed voluntary and not subject to these regulations.
